Identity Thief

Do not use your birth date (forward or reversed) as part of your ID for things like eBay, PayPal, email etc. Date of birth is used to confirm your identity now. You can use it in a password in a reliable place like a bank as no one can see it. It is encrypted, and the IT managers cannot see it. Use your postcode or street number etc. if you require a number.